WHAT I KNOW ABOUT VEGETINE.

SOUTH BOSTON, May 9, 1870.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I've had considerable experience with the VEGETINE. For dyspepsia, genuine debility and impure blood, the VEGETINE is superior to anything which I have ever used. I commenced taking VEGETINE about the middle of last Winter, and, after using a few bottles, it entirely cured me of dyspepsia, and my blood never was in so good condition as at the present time. It will afford me pleasure to give any further particulars relative to what I know about this good medicine to any one who will call or address me at my residence, 936 Athens street.

Very respectfully, MONROE PARKER, 936 Athens street.

Dyspepsia.

SYMPTOMS—Want of appetite, rising of food and wind from the stomach, acidity of the stomach, heartburn, dryness and whiteness of the tongue in the morning, sense of distension in the stomach and bowels, sometimes rumbling and pain; costiveness, which is occasionally interrupted by diarrhœa; paleness of the urine. The mouth is clammy, or has a sour or bitter taste. Other frequent symptoms are waterbrash, palpitation of the heart, headache, and disorders of the senses, as seeing double, etc. There is general debility, languor and aversion to motion; dejection of the spirits, disturbed sleep, and frightful dreams.

Gained Fifteen Pounds of Flesh.

SOUTH BERWICK, ME., Jan. 17, 1872.

H. R. STEVENS, Esq.:

Dear Sir—I have had dyspepsia in its worst form for the last ten years, and have taken hundreds of dollars' worth of medicine without obtaining any relief. In September last I commenced taking the VEGETINE, since which time my health has steadily improved. My food digests well, and I have gained fifteen pounds of flesh. There are several others in this place taking the VEGETINE, all have obtained relief.

Yours, truly, THOMAS E. MOORE, Overseer of card room, Portsmouth Co.'s Mills.

Diseases of the Blood.

If VEGETINE will relieve pain, disease, purify and cure such diseases, restoring the patient to perfect health after trying different physicians, many remedies, suffering for years, is it not conclusive proof, if you are a sufferer you can be cured? Why is this medicine performing such great cures? It works in the blood, in the circulating fluid. It can truly be called the Great Blood Purifier. The great source of disease originates in the blood; and no medicine that does not act directly upon it, to purify and renovate, has any just claim upon public attention.

GOOD EVIDENCE.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 26, 1872.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—The two bottles of VEGETINE furnished me by your agent my wife has used with great benefit. For a long time she has been troubled with dizziness and costiveness; these troubles are now entirely removed by the use of VEGETINE.

She was also troubled with dyspepsia and general debility, and has been greatly benefited.

THOMAS GILMORE, 229½ Walnut street.

RELIABLE EVIDENCE.

MR. H. R. STEVENS:

Dear Sir—I will most cheerfully add my testimony to the great number you have already received in favor of your great and good medicine, VEGETINE, for I do not think enough can be said in its praise, for I was troubled over thirty years with that dreadful disease, Catarrh, and had such bad coughing spells that it would seem as though I could never breath any more, and VEGETINE has cured me; and I do feel to thank God all the time that there is so good a medicine as VEGETINE, and I also think it one of the best medicines for coughs and weak sinking feelings at the stomach, and advise everybody to take the VEGETINE, for I can assure them it is one of the best medicines that ever was. MRS. L. GORE, Corner Magazine and Walnut streets, Cambridge, Mass.

APPRECIATION.

CHARLESTOWN, Mass., March 10, 1869.

H. R. STEVENS:

This is to certify that I have used your "Blood Preparation" (VEGETINE) in my family for several years and think, for scrofula or Cancerous Humors or Rheumatic affections, it cannot be excelled; and as a blood purifier and spring medicine it is the best thing I ever used; and I have used almost everything. I can cheerfully recommend it to any one in need of such a medicine.

Yours respectfully, MRS. A. A. DINSMORE, 19 Russell street.

An Act in amendment of Chapter 195 of the General Statutes, "of Writs, the forms thereof and when issuable," and of chapter 196, "of the Service of Writs."

[Passed June 25, 1875.]

It is enacted by the General Assembly as follows.

SECTION 1. The form of writs of attachment in civil actions is hereby amended by inserting therein next after the word "dollars," and before the words "to answer," the words "and to summon the said" (insert the name of a person named as defendant,) so that such writ of attachment shall hereafter include a writ of summons, and whenever any such writ shall be duly served upon the defendant by any officer properly charged with the service thereof, either by reading the same in the presence and hearing of such defendant, or by giving him a certified copy thereof in hand, or by leaving such copy at his last and usual place of abode, such service shall be sufficient to bring the cause of action upon which said writ shall have been issued to trial upon its merits, whether any valid attachment of property shall have been made upon said writ or not.

SEC. 2. If the property attached shall be in one county, and the defendant be or have his usual place of abode in another county, the attachment may be made by any proper officer of the county where the property was situate, and the defendant may be summoned by any such officer of any other county where the defendant may be found, or may have his usual place of abode.

SEC. 3. After the making of any attachment of property upon any such writ of attachment, subsequent attachments of other property of the defendant may be made by any proper officer, at any time before the defendant is served with the said writ, and if need be, the plaintiff may amend his writ for the purpose of having such subsequent attachment made.

SEC. 4. If no property shall have been attached on any writ of attachment, no costs of service of the writ of attachment shall be taxed against the defendant.

SEC. 5. This act shall take effect on the first day of July, A. D. 1875.

MARRIAGE BY LOTTERY.—Miss de Vergas, says a Calcutta paper, wishes to be married—nothing very extraordinary in that—but the manner in which she proposes to accomplish her design is curious. Donna Pepa de Vergas offers herself as the prize of a lottery for the sum of one lac and 10,000rs., upon the following conditions—:(1) Twenty-two thousand tickets at 5rs. each. (2) The takers of tickets are simply to send in their names; the amount of their subscription to be collected when the sum mentioned has been subscribed for. (3) The lottery to take place at a date to be hereafter announced at the Town Hall, Calcutta, and to be drawn and conducted by Miss de Vergas. (4) The owner of the winning number will have the option of one of the following choices, (a) To marry Miss de Vergas, and share with her—on the principle of community of goods—her fortune of one lac of rupees. (b) Or, in the case of refusing the marriage, the sum of 50,000rs. will be paid to him. Miss de Vergas retaining for herself 50,000rs. (5) Miss de Vergas reserves to herself the right of refusing to marry the owner of the winning number should he prove to be a person she would not care to espouse. In that case the winner will be paid the sum of 50,000rs. A young lady of birth, of noble family, well educated—she speaks Spanish, French and a little English—clever, and a brilliant beauty; to all these qualifications add a fortune of 100,000rs., and, bachelors of India, to you is now offered the chance of gaining this inestimable prize!

To do business with the aid of advertising, has the same advantage as to make war with rifled guns; it hits at long range.

THE DAY.

Texas is to have a new constitution a small majority of the voters having declared in its favor.

The sea serpent has appeared at Swampscott, and will doubtless visit Nahant soon. That place also needs advertising.

The musical institute at East Greenwich proves a great success. Dr. Tourjee proves himself well fitted for large undertakings of this kind.

The Odd Fellows report a rapid increase of membership in the United States. In Rhode Island alone they have five thousand three hundred members, including many of our best and most prominent citizens.

The great floods of the West are sadly interfering with the crops and the farmers will not be able to furnish as abundant supplies as were anticipated. Still there is enough for all our people and some to spare unless new calamities arise.

Free excursions for poor children are among the popular charities of the day. It is a good thing to give the children of crowded cities a breath of pure air on the waters or in the country, and we trust the custom will extend throughout the world.

The rough weather, which turned back the Block Island steamer, also interfered somewhat with the Vineyard communications. The steamer Monohansett left New Bedford yesterday morning at the usual time, but broke a steampipe off Vineyard Haven, and had to be towed in. The Martha's Vineyard omitted her 10 o'clock trip yesterday, but left New Bedford at 2 o'clock with the passengers by the midday trains. We hear of no interruption in the running of the boats of the Old Colony line between Wood's Hole and the Vineyard.

ROMANCE IN REAL LIFE.

AN EXTRAORDINARY STORY OF YOUTHFUL DISAPPOINTMENT AND LIFELONG CONSTANCY.

While in Victor, Ontario county, N. Y., recently we learned the particulars of a romance of real life which rivals the most ingenious creation of the fancy. We give the story as it was told to us, every detail of which we believe to be strictly true. The principals, Calvin Bates and Nancy Hill, were born something like sixty years ago, somewhere—the exact place is unimportant—in Vermont. They were very nearly of an age, were the children of neighbors, and spent much of their youth in each other's company, mutually dividing their joys and sorrows, as well as their bread and butter and sugar. But they couldn't tarry as children, if they would. Calvin grew into a strong-limbed young man with a downy upper lip and a deep bass voice, and Nancy rounded into a comely maiden, the pride of her parents and the admiration of the village beaux. Calvin loved her, of course; hadn't he always loved her? and Nancy was morally sure that none of the young men of her acquaintance were more worthy of her affection than Calvin, and so they were engaged, and were to be married as soon as enough money could be made to give them a little start in life. It did seem for once that the course of true love would run smoothly. The openings for young men to get ahead in the world in Vermont, at least in their section, being few, Calvin bade a tender adieu to his Nancy, and tore himself away, and went to seek his fortune in Cortlandt county, New York. Here he labored hard, and practiced the most rigid economy that he might save up money enough to buy a home, cheered the meanwhile by tender, loving epistles, conveying assurances of undiminished regard and sympathy. But there came a change. It wasn't a pleasant thing for Calvin, although if it hadn't occurred the pith would have been knocked out of this story completely. Nancy's letters ceased coming. Missives inquiring the cause of the silence brought no response, and reports came to his ears that Nancy was smiling on another. He sorrowed over disappointment bitterly and long, but as he didn't commit suicide, to start with, he finally concluded, as a majority of rejected suitors do, to marry some one else. He reached the conclusion seven years after leaving Vermont, and after the ceremony was performed, took his wife back to his old home, just to let Nancy see that she wasn't the only woman in the world, and that there were those who were glad to have him if she wasn't. It would have been better for his peace of mind if he had stayed away, for he not only found that Nancy had not married, but that she had been patiently though tearfully waiting for him all these years, sick at heart with hope so long deferred, but never doubting that he would come day come to claim her hand and clear away the mystery. It seemed that she had written as faithfully as he, but his letters ceased coming and the explanation came too late to mend affairs. The village mail was distributed by a woman, and she had a grudge against Nancy; which she most cruelly avenged by intercepting and destroying her letters to Calvin, and his replies. The mischief was done, however, and there was no honorable course but to submit and make the best of the dilemma. Bates took his wife and came off to the west, where he made her a home of comfort and ease and she bore him a half dozen children. Seven years ago the recollection of the old time so worked upon him that he left the home in California and visited Vermont again. He found that Nancy, whom he had left more than thirty years before, had been married to a man named Walker and had become a widow; that she had grown up children, but was in straitened circumstances, and that her home was in Victor, N. Y. He hunted her up on his way back, and made her a call. Together they reviewed old recollections, and all in all had a very pleasant time of it. He had her picture taken to carry back with him, and on leaving, insisted on giving her an elegant silk dress and $150. It isn't probable that Mrs. Bates knew anything of this, but as money was to them, so to speak, a drug in the market, who shall blame the husband for giving his old flame a helping hand? Seven years more rolled around and left Mr. Bates a widower. True as the needle to the pole, his thoughts reverted to Nancy, and after a decent season of waiting, he sought her out last Fall, and the twain were speedily made one flesh. She pleaded for a little delay to make wedding preparations, but he would here no postponement for any purpose. He brought her rich jewels, and she was married in the dress he had bought her seven years before. A little later they went for a bridal tour to their childhood's home in Vermont, once again to bring vividly to mind the old days when their hearts were first warmed into the love for each other which had reached its full fruition after the laps of so many weary years. They have now settled in Victor, in Ontario county, where they anticipate spending the remainder of their days in peace and quietude. They are an old couple, but very happy, and scarcely less fond of each other probably than when the passion coursed through the veins of youth.—[South Bend (Ind.) Tribune.

GANNETT INSTITUTE.—This institute in our city, located at 69 Chester square, has been now for years slowly enlarging in its scope and aim, until it has reached a condition of high excellency. In the broad range of its studies, in its large and very able corps of teachers, in its course of lectures by distinguished gentlemen from the outside world, it gives a fulness and finish to its education, such as can be found in few schools of this general character. We notice that eleven different states are represented on the catalogue. This fact seems to indicate that while the institution has a good local reputation, it is also well known and appreciated at a distance. We had the pleasure of attending some of the examinations, which have been in progress at this school during the present week, especially those in philosophy and art studies. There was every evidence of fairness in the examinations. Questions were asked promiscuously by the teacher and by visitors, and the answers of the young ladies were such as to indicate that their knowledge was their own, well stored for future use.

The aim of Mr. and Mrs. Gannett, in conducting this institution, is to make a cultivated and happy home for the pupils under their care, and to afford every needed facility for a wide and generous culture. The full course embraces a period of four years, but many young ladies are connected with the school for shorter periods. It would be difficult to find within the limits of the old city of Boston, a pleasanter spot for the school than the one where it is located. Looking out upon Chester square, with its wealth of trees and flowers, it does not seem so much like a city prospect as some highly cultivated park in the country.—[Boston Advertiser.

At Defiance, O., the other day, a noble street sprinkler volunteered to assist a machine shopman in adjusting a belt, and in about two seconds the machinery had stripped off every rag of his clothing, winding up by jerking off his boots. Strange to say, he was not injured, the peeling having been accomplished as thoroughly as if the machine had been made for that kind of work. And right here is a valuable hint. Everybody knows the monotony of disrobing every night, year in and year out, and how it saps the energies. This Ohio accident shows that there is a way to put an end to the tedious and barbarous process. Before another twelvemonth, let it be so that every American may step into his machine at 10 P. M., and in an instant reappear, robed for the night, with his bed turned down and his mosquito bar lifting itself to admit him to the dreamy realm.—[Louisville Courier-Journal.

"Chawles, Chawles, bwing me—ah—a small—a vewy small piece of beef—ah—about the size of a half a dollah. Do you understand, Chawles?" said a delicate youth to a restaurant waiter. "Yes, sah, in a moment, sah," said the darkey. As he started off, a great raw-boned fellow sitting near by yelled at him, "Waitaw, waitaw!" "Yes, sah; what will you have, sah?" The eyes of all in the room were upon the muscular countryman as he drawled forth, "Chawles, Chawles, bwing me a small—a vewy small piece of pork—ah—and one bean. Do you understand, Chawles?"

March
Overture,—William Tell	Rossini.
Selection, —Girofle-Girofla	Lecoc.
Waltz,—Wiener Blut	Strauss.
Song,—Good Night	Abt.
Galop,—Kikeriki	Fahrbash.

NEW SEWER.—Ground was broken this morning for the new sewer, which is to start at the foot of Washington square, pass through Prison street and River lane, or Cinnamon alley, cross Farewell street, and thence up Tanner to the foot of Oak street, where it will connect with the Ayrault street sewer. It is expected that this will relieve the Tanner street sewer and prevent the damage by backwater which was done on the nineth of last June, the 7th of August 1871, and on several other occasions. Gilman & Judge of Providence are the contractors.

DOMESTIC AND OTHER UNHAPPINESS.—Joseph Morrison was arrested yesterday for beating his wife and threatening to drown her, Monday night. Yesterday morning she was seen wading in the basin back of her house on Long wharf, with her little girl, and it was supposed she contemplated suicide, but she denies this. It is said that she was formerly a good, hard working woman but that her husband spoiled her by spending her money and beating her. At any rate, they have lately kept a rather disorderly place, and have received frequent visits from the police. The man works for Page & Rowley who went bail for him. It is hoped that this affair will break up Morrisons' place and relieve the city of their society.

THE JUBILEE MISSION.—The jubilee services at St. Mary's Roman Catholic church are progressing with interesting and largely attended services. The Dominican fathers are earnest and eloquent. The Rev. Father Burns, O. P., on Monday evening expounded the doctrine of penance and argued for the priestly judicial authority to forgive sins, with Scriptural evidence to support his arguments. Last evening Father Daly preached from the cleansing of the leper as recorded in the eighth chapter of Mathew. He particularly condemned the practice at the confessional of throwing blame off onto other people. More priests are expected today to assist in the mission and administer to the spiritual wants of all.

CITY COUNCIL.

A PART OF RHODE ISLAND AVENUE TO BE CURBED AND GRADED.—COST OF CRUSHED STONE.—NEW STREET LAMPS ORDERED.—LIQUOR BUSINESS.

The city council met at the usual hour last evening and transacted the following business in concurrence.

Reports Received.

Finance report No 2, and bills amounting to $9506.79 were ordered paid. The summaries of items are as follows:—

Streets and highways	3970.29
Public schools	2279.34
Police	1306.08
Lighting streets	485.07
Burial grounds	445.86
Salaries	150.00
Printing	58.50
Dog fund	38.00
Asylum	99.39
Public parks	9.00
Ward meetings	43.00
Paupers	66.43
Fire department	32.00
Repairs on reservoirs	26.41
Pepairs on steamers	24.00

The finance committee reported that they had examined the accounts of all receiving officers of the city, and had found them correct.

J. P. Cotton, acting street commissioner, made his report of operations for June. Capt. Cotton has ascertained the cost of crushing stone to be from ninety cents to a dollar a ton. Handling adds 25 cents to that amount and each screening adds 20 cents. The stone when ready for use costs from $1.45 to $1.65 a ton. If the crusher stood on the hill at the foot of which it is now it would save the city $2000 a year in the cost of handling the stone.

Of the committee on gas and lamps recommending that no contract be made with the Newport Gaslight Company for lighting streets because that company furnishes gas to the city no cheaper than it does to individuals. That that company be contracted with for lamp posts and lanterns complete in accordance with their bid. That the Boston Globe Gaslight Company be contracted with to light the fifty lamps now using fluid. That the Newport Manufacturing Company be contracted with to furnish lamp posts only and also lanterns and globes. That one lamp post be set in Golden Hill street provided the petitioners carry gas to the post. That one lamp be placed at the corner of Annandale road and Weaver street, two in Malbone avenue, and one in Gibbs avenue. Resolutions in accordance with all these recommendations were adopted.

Of the committee on streets and highways recommending that J. T. Burdick and others, petitioners for release from an offer to sell a wharf property to the city, have leave to withdraw. That $1029.76, being 85 per cent. of the cost thus far of work on Spring street, be appropriated from the funds of the street department and paid to Stephen Barker, contractor. A resolution in accordance with the last recommendation was adopted.

Petitions Presented.

Of William Dobois and others for a lamp in Prospect Hill street between the avenue and Francis Hammett's house. Referred to the committee on gas and lamps.

Of Henry G. Marquand and others for the acceptance of Buena Vista street from Greenough place to Channing avenue. Referred to the committee on streets and highways.

Of Charles H. Langley, 110 and 112 Spring street, for $100 compensation for damage done by overflow of water caused by cutting off a drain during the repairing of Spring street. Referred to the committee on streets and highways.

Communications Received.

From the board of firewards announcing that two vacancies exist in fire engine company No. 1.

From Charles C. Van Zandt and others, an offer to pay two thirds of the expense of grading and curbing Rhode Island avenue from Kay street to Francis street, accompanied by a proposed deed of that portion of that avenue, signed by the abutters. Gen. Van Zandt explained that it had been desired to include in this proposal the 2500 feet of Rhode Island avenue between Catherine street and Broadway, but that two abutters refused to sign the deed. Therefore the 900 feet between Kay and Francis streets was offered. Repairs on the last street have been ordered, but can not well be done till something is done with this part of Rhode Island avenue. The deed was accepted by resolution and repairs ordered.

The bill of the dredge Knickerbocker against William J. Swinburne for $297.80 for digging out a dock which had been filled by deposits from a sewer was presented to the city council for payment. The matter of Mr. Swinburne's claim was referred to a special committee of Alderman Brown and Councilmen Stoddard and Reynolds.

Resolutions Adopted.

Directing the city sergeant to replace in the safe the assessors' books and maps, when they have been taken out.

Directing the committee on gas and lamps to erect a street lamp on Broadway at Equality park.

Directing the committee on city property to grade and make paths in the recently bought addition to the cemetery.

Firemen Elected.

In convention Herbert G. Wood was elected a member of fire engine company No. 3, Christian Peters, was elected to No. 1, and George Burkinshaw was transferred from No. 3, to No. 1.

Aldermanic Business.

The board of aldermen did the following business.

A complaint was received from the president of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals charging James B. Tennant, owner, and Vincent Gills, driver, of hack No. 6 with overdriving a pair of horses, and a resolution was adopted ordering the aforesaid Tennant and Gills to appear on the ninth of August before the board and show cause why their licenses should not be taken away.

A petition was received from John H. Irish, setting forth that the slaughter house formerly of Isaac and William Sherman had been bought by Henry Goffe, and moved to within 75 feet of the petitioner's residence; that the smell therefrom was offensive and the petitioner wished the nuisance abated.

A communication was received from R. S. Franklin setting forth he was charged $36.50 for alleged improvements which actually damaged his drainage and sidewalk, and instead of paying the city for the work he wants the city to put his premises back in as good order as they were before Spring street was repaired.

A petition from persons who have places of business here in Summer only was received asking that their license fees be reduced from $25 to $10, and by a vote of three to two the prayer of the petitioners was granted.

The petition of Thomas Dunn, administrator, for permission to enter the sewer in Sherman street was granted subject to the payment of $25 and the superintendence of the street commissioner.

The Key-Note of Health.

The health and vigor of the several organs of the body depend upon the simple condition that the functions which pertain to each shall be regularly and actively performed. If vitality is sluggish or deficient, this condition is not properly fulfilled, and as a consequence disease is soon inaugurated. Prevent it by a timely use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, which rouse the vital energies when dormant and endow the feeble frame with needful stamina. At the same time that the Bitters infuse new strength into the system, they correct those functional irregularities and local weaknesses which sap the vital power. Dyspepsia, bladder and kidney complaints, gout, rheumatism, fever and ague, biliousness, constipation and nervous diseases are invariably overcome by the operation of this standard alterative tonic. aug3-1w

Delays are dangerous, persons suffering from dropsy, Bright's disease, kidney, bladder and glandular maladies, diabetes, gravel, mental and physical debility, retention and incontinence of urine, female irregularities, and in fact all affections of the urino-genital organs should at once partake of Hunt's Remedy. It is the Balm of Gilead for such distressing complaints. aug4-1w-n&j

ECONOMICAL NEW FOOD. 25 cents will buy a package of Sea Moss Farine, made from pure Irish Moss, which will make 50 kinds of dishes, such as cakes, pies, puddings, etc., or 16 quarts of custards, jellies, creams, Charlotte Russe, blanc mange, etc. Sold by all Druggists and Grocers, aug3-1y

A Fragrant Breath and Pearly Teeth

Are easily attained, and those who fail to avail themselves of the means, should not complain, when accused of gross neglect. The SOZODONT will speedily eradicate the cause of a foul breath, beautifying and preserving the teeth to the oldest age. aug2-1w

Call at the 99 cts. store, Cottrell's block, 2d door south of the postoffice and buy one of those nice carriage robes only 99 cts. Look at the Toilet Jars, Vases and Toilet Sets, 4 wheeled Wagons, Carts Wheelbarrows, Gent's fine Bosom Shirts, Chromos &c., only 99 cts. each. jy22-tf

SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC.—In the atmosphere experienced here during the Summer months, the lethargy produced by the heat takes away the desire for wholesome food, and frequent perspirations reduce bodily energy, particularly those suffering from the effects of debilitating diseases. In order to keep a natural healthful activity of the system, we must resort to artificial means. For this purpose Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic is very effectual. A few doses will create an appetite and give fresh vigor to the enervated body. For dyspepsia, it is invaluable. Many eminent physicians have doubted whether dyspepsia can be permanently cured by the drugs which are generally employed for that purpose. The Sea Weed Tonic in its nature is totally different from such drugs. It contains no corrosive minerals or acids; in fact it assists the regular operations of nature, and supplies her deficiencies. The tonic in its nature so much resembles the gastric juice that it is almost identical with that fluid. The gastric juice is the natural solvent which, in a healthy condition of the body, causes the food to be digested; and when this juice is not excreted in sufficient quantities, indigestion, with all its distressing symptoms, follows. The Sea Weed Tonic performs the duty of the gastric juice when the latter is deficient. Schenck's Sea Weed Tonic sold by all Druggists. jy6-1mo

Adams Academy,

QUINCY, MASS.

HON. CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, LL.D., Chairman of the Board of Managers, WILLIAM REYNOLDS DIMMOCK, LL.D., Master, assisted by thoroughly competent teachers and by special instructors in French, German and Drawing. The third year of this academy will begin on WEDNESDAY, September 8. The design of the academy is to prepare boys in the most thorough manner for the best American Colleges. There is a preparatory class for younger boys and for those who are deficient in their English and elementary studies. The large boarding house of the Academy is under the charge of the Master, who, with his assistants, resides in it. The accommodations by the Old Colony Railroad are such that many boys from Boston and the adjacent towns avail themselves of the advantages of the Academy, while residing at their own homes. They leave Boston fifteen minutes before nine in the morning and reach there on their return a few minutes past two o'clock. Some dine at the Academy boarding house, spend the afternoon in the country with the boys, and return by an early train. Car fare is but nine dollars for three months.

Tuition—One hundred dollars per year. For catalogues address the Master. The number of pupils is necessarily limited, and early application should be made. jy31-1m

THE WESTERN FLOOD.

Cessation of the Rain.—The Mississippi River Thirty Feet Above High Water Mark.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 3.

The weather has cleared, and yesterday was clear and cool with no rain. There are indications of a dry spell. The river is about thirty feet above low water mark, but there is no serious damage. There is a considerable rise in all the river streams still to come down, however, and the probabilities are that a good deal of low land on the Illinois shore, opposite here and between here and Cairo will be flooded. A disastrous freshet, however, is not looked for.

Progress of the Flood in Ohio.

CINCINNATI, Aug., 3.

A dispatch to the Times, from Chillicothe, says the rain continues and the flood gains strength. The canal broke below the city, and swept 5,000 bushels of wheat into the river. People living in the bottom lands are moving their families, fearing an inundation. At Ironton, the Ohio is rising five inches an hour, and also rising rapidly at Cincinnati, where it has already invaded the lower stories of houses on Water street, and bids fair to go as high as ever known before.

The Estimated Damage in Montgomery County, Ohio, Half a Million Dollars.

DAYTON, Aug., 3.

The Miami and tributaries have receded over four feet, and are running out rapidly. The weather is still dismal and drizzly. The small grains are all badly damaged, tobacco is used up, potatoes are rotting, and the narrow belt of corn considerably damaged. The total damage in Montgomery county to the crops and other property is estimated at half a million dollars.

The Crops in the Indian Lowlands Buried.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Aug. 3.

The crops on the low bottoms have been utterly ruined. Heavy damage has been done to the Evansville and Crawfordsville Railroad above Patoka, which will be repaired tomorrow. The rivers are still rising.

The Rise of the River at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 3.

The river rose two inches during the last twenty-four hours, and now stands eleven inches below the rise of this spring, and three feet below the flood of 1867, but reports from above indicate that the flood will exceed the spring rise.

Along the Wabash River.—Total Destruction of the Wabash and Erie Canal.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Aug. 3.

The flood in the Wabash is more than a foot above the high water mark of 1858 and several inches higher than ever before since the settlement of the country. All the tributaries have been running out and the low ground is all overflowed. In many places the river is from three to five miles wide. The damage is incalculable. Great suffering must result to tenants in the low lands, whose all is swept away.

The Wabash bottoms, for an average of a mile and a half wide the whole length of the river, are submerged, and crops, both harvested and growing, are swept away. Our city is located on high ground, and but slight damage has been experienced except to manufactories and mills. The destruction on the Wabash and Erie canal between here and Fort Wayne is complete. It is broken in a hundred places. The canal and river have been on a level for forty eight hours, the water of the river rushing through the canal and running over its banks from one to the other at all the low places. This will be a terrible blow to the people of the state.

The Fall River Strike. No Important change in the Situation.

FALL RIVER, Aug. 3.

The situation here today is but slightly changed. The Stafford mill is still running in full, and the probability is it will continue to run this week out. Wages have not been reduced in this mill as yet. The Richard Borden mill started up this morning and ran until noon with one thousand looms in operation, but at dinner time a noisy mob collected about the mill, and the consequence was only about 600 looms were running this afternoon. This evening the mob again assembled, and will probably do so in the morning in greater force, so it is not likely the mill will have enough force to run. The meeting which was to be held in the park this afternoon was again postponed until tomorrow.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

IS YOUR LIFE WORTH 10 CENTS?

Sickness prevails everywhere, and everybody complains of some disease during their life. When sick, the object is to get well; we say plainly that no person in this world that is suffering with Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and its effects, such as Indigestion, Costiveness, Sick Headache, Sour Stomach, Heart-burn, Palpitation of the Heart, Depressed Spirits, Biliousness, &c., can take Green's August Flower without getting relief and cure. If you doubt this, go to your Druggist James H. Taylor and get a Sample Bottle for 10 cents and try it. Regular size 75 cents. Two doses will relieve you.

LOOKING FOR TRICHINÆ.—The ladies, particularly, object to trichinæ. Probably nobody shows much anxiety to come across the little twisters in his food—but the ladies particularly oppose their presence. A few days ago a well-known gentleman ordered from his butcher's a large ham and a piece of dried beef, weighing almost as much as the ham and somewhat similar to it in appearance. The next day when he went home at noon he found his wife and the servant girl busily engaged in the kitchen. The wife had an opera glass and was inspecting the meat.

"What's up?" asked the husband.

"Well, we thought we'd have some ham for dinner, and I don't want any of those tri—Sarah, I believe that's one; just look at it and see. Ugh! It's a nice lean ham, ain't it?"

The husband leaned up against the door-post and broke into a tremendous guffaw.

"Oh, yes! That is always the way with you men! Supposing I didn't look for trichinæ, and there should be some, and we should—bah—eat 'em and die. Guess you wouldn't laugh then!"

And then the husband roared the more. He endeavored to speak—and pointed at the meat—slapped his legs and roared again.

"Why, William, what is the matter with you? I don't see anything very funny in trying to prevent harm. Why yesterday I read about a family down in Missouri somewhere that—why, William—say, don't you want somebody to help you laugh?"

By this time the husband had gained control of himself sufficiently to pick up the meat and hold it before his wife's eyes. "Beef!" he said, "ha-ha-dried beef—better get a telescope—oh my!"

Actually, she had been examining a piece of dried beef with an opera-glass, trying to find trichinæ. She didn't say much when her husband asked her how long she had been keeping house, but she put the opera-glass back and told Sarah perhaps she'd better go and get the ham, now, and they'd have some for dinner, "when people who know so much get through laughing at a little thing like that!"—[Evening Wisconsin.

"As to being conflicted with the gout," said Mrs. Partington, "high living don't bring it on. It is inconinent in some families, and is handed down from father to son. Mr. Hammer, poor soul, disinherits it from his wife's grandmother.

Newport Daily News.

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 4, 1875.

CHICKENS.

"I didn't!" says Chip. "You did!" says Peep.
"How do you know?—you were fast asleep."
"I was under Mammy's wing,
Stretching my legs like anything,
When all of a sudden I turned around,
For close beside me I heard a sound—
A little tip, and a little tap."
"Fiddle-de-dee! You'd had a nap,
And, when you were only half awake,
Heard an icicle somewhere break."
"What's an icicle?" "I don't know;
Rooster tells about ice and snow,
Something that isn't as good as meal,
That drops down on you and makes you squeal.
"Well! swallow Rooster's tales, I beg!
And think you didn't come out of an egg!
I tell you I heard the old shell break,
And the first small noise you ever could make;
And Mammy croodled, and puffed her breast,
And pushed us further out of the nest,
Just to make room enough for you;
And there's your shell—I say it's true!"
Ob'p looked over his shoulder then,
And there it lay by the old gray hen—
Half an egg shell, chipped and brown,
And he was a ball of yellow down,
Clean and chipper, and smart and spry,
With the perfect bill and the blackest eye.
"H'm!" said he, with a little perk,
"That is a wonderful piece of work!
Peep, you silly! don't you see
That shell isn't nearly as big as me?
Whatever you say, Miss I declare
I never, never, could get in there!
"You did!" says Peep. "I didn't" says Chip;
With that he gave her a horrid nip,
And Peep began to dance and peck,
And Chip stuck out his wings and neck.
They pranced, and struck and capered about,
Their toes turned in and their wings spread out,
As angry as two small chicks could be,
Till Mother Dorking turned to see,
She cakled and clucked, and called in vain—
At it they went with might and main—
Till, at last, the old hen used her beak,
And Peep and Chip, with many a squeak,
Staggered off on either side,
With a very funny skip and stride,
"What dreadful nonsense!" said Mother Hen,
When she heard the story told again;
"You're bad as the two-legs that don't have wings,
Nor feathers nor combs—the wretched things!
That's the way they fight and talk,
For what isn't worth a mullein stalk.
What does it matter, I'd like to know,
Where you came from, or where you go?
Keep your temper and eat your food;
I can't scratch worms for a fighting brood.
I won't have quarrels—I will have peace;
I hatched out chickens, so don't be geese!"
Chip scratched his ear with his yellow claw,
The meekest chicken that ever you saw;
And Peep in her feathers curled one leg
And said to herself: "But he was an egg!"

PALACE HOTEL,

SAN FRANCISCO.

Summer and Winter Resort.

The thermometer at San Francisco ranging in Summer from 60 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit, and in Winter from 50 to 60, the climate is of the most salubrious character, giving to travellers a most cheering welcome at any season that they may arrive.

PALACE HOTEL,

350x275 feet, covers 96,250 square feet of land, making it the Most Spacious Hotel in the World.

Its commodious and elegant character is assured by the fact that, in the inception of the enterprise, the owners, WILLIAM C. RALSTON, Esq., and Hon. WILLIAM SHARON, instructed their architect to visit the hotels of the principal cities in the United States and Europe for the express purpose of including in the plans of the PALACE all existing improvements, and such additional ones that experience and observation had suggested, they desiring it to be a Palatial Hotel in Every Respect.

The location is THE BEST IN THE CITY, being at the junction of the Main Thoroughfares.

The PALACE is seven stories high, most substantially built, and is Fire-proof in all Essential Points.

The lower story is 25 feet high, the others 11 and 16 feet.

All walls and petitions throughout the Hotel are built of Stone and Brick, laid in Cement, and braided together with iron.

There are Three Inner Courts, the centre one being 144x84, covered with glass at height of building, with Carriage and Promenade Entrance from the street of 44 feet width, and having a Circle Driveway of 54 feet diameter, that being surrounded by a marble-tiled Promenade and a

Tropical Garden,

Having Exotic Plants,

Statuary, and Fountains.

Fronting the Centre Court from every story, and upon its entire boundary, there are

Verandas, 12 feet wide, Illuminated by Standard Lights at each pillared section, and from the Garden Level to the Veranda of the second floor is an Elegant Staircase, ornamented at its various landings with Statuary and Flower Vases. Midway up this staircase is the approach to the Music Pavilion for the use of the Instrumental Band

(to be exclusively employed in the Hotel.)

From the Centre Court is the Main Entrance to the Hotel Office, that room being 55x55, as also entrance to

Breakfast Room, 110x55;

Dining-Room, 150x55;

Ball and Music Room, 65x55;

Ladies' Reception Room, 40x60;

Reading Room, 40x40;

Committee Rooms,

and other general apartments used in common by hotel patrons, all these rooms having other convenient entrances.

On Second Floor are

Ladies' Drawing Room, 84x40; Children's Dining Hall and Private Dining Rooms.

The rooms for guests are equally well finished and furnished, and arranged for use, either singly or in suites of two or more, they being so approached and connected that a suite of any number can be had, possessing

All the Advantages of a Private Dwelling.

All Outer Rooms have a Bay Window, and every room a Fire-place, a Clothes-closet, and Toilet Room, and to every two rooms there is a Bath Room.

The total number of rooms in the PALACE, above the Garden Floor, exclusively for the use of guests—most of them being 20 feet square, and none of less size than 16x16—are 755.

Each floor has its Own Annunciator

with its special service in constant attendance, also a tube receptacle for

Letters for Post-Office,

all leading to the main Letter Box in the General Office. There is a

Pneumatic Dispatch Tube,

by which messages and parcels can be instantaneously sent to any point on the different floors.

All the rooms have approach or entrance from the Arcades, furnished by the existence of the three Inner Courts, thereby giving to all interior rooms

Fresh Air and Sunlight.

The system of Ventilation applied to all the rooms, including the Bath and Toilet rooms, is perfect, there being a total number of 2,042 Ventilating tubes opening outward on the roof of the Hotel; each one coming from some particular room or closet. And for each room there is special provision made to admit the fresh air.

Upon the Garden Floor of the Palace there is an Arcade Promenade, 12 feet wide, with entrances to all of the stores under the Hotel, each one having a Show Window upon the Promenade.

The Palace Hotel is Elegantly Furnished, equally well upon every floor, and is complete in extent of detail as the comfort of patrons can desire. In addition to being Fire-proof, as mentioned, the arrangement for protection against fire is perfect, the Hotel having

Four Artesian Wells,

a Reservoir under the garden plot holding capacity being 630,000 gallons—Steam Engines, Steam Pumps, and a supply of 14,570 feet of hose, which, with

Fire Apparatus Complete,

is located at convenient stations upon each floor of the building.

In every room and passageway throughout the Hotel there is a thermostatic bulb, by which an extra degree of heat existing will be announced at the general office, upon a dial, stating the exact locality, making thereby a Complete Fire Alarm Guard.

The Watchman's Tell-tale Indicator, in the office, faithfully reports the intervals of the watchman upon his regular rounds, both day and night, and in other respects indicate the method and manner of his attention to duty.

There are Five Elevators and Seven Stairways leading from Garden Floor to the Upper Story. There is a Solid Iron Staircase, enclosed by brick, which leads from basement to upper story, having openings only on each floor.

The Elevators are worked by Hydraulic Power, and while the most desirable speed is attained they are securely safe and noiseless, and in every way free from all the objections that have heretofore prevailed with similar conveyances.

The Salubrious and Equable Character of the Climate,

(the thermometer at San Francisco, in Summer, ranging from 60 to 70 degrees Fahrenheit, and in Winter from 50 to 60 degrees,) extend such an inviting welcome to travellers, that every endeavor has been made to have the PALACE fully harmonize with it in its attractive features, by combining the comforts and conveniences of American and European hotels, with the greatly prized luxuries of Oriental life.

"I regard Mr. Eddy as one of the most capable and successful practitioners with whom I have had official intercourse."

CHARLES MASON, Commissioner of Patents.

"I have no hesitation in assuring inventors that they cannot employ a man more competent and trustworthy and more capable of putting their applications in a form to secure for them an early and favorable consideration at the Patent Office." EDMUND BURKE,

Late Commissioner of Patents.

"Mr. R. H. Eddy has made for me over THIRTY applications for Patents, having been successful in almost every case. Such unmistakeable proof of great talent and ability on his part, leads me to recommend ALL inventors to apply to him to procure their Patents; as they may be sure of having the most faithful attention bestowed on their cases, and at very reasonable charges."
